CASE NO. 37-2007-00081372-CU-OE-CTL

COMPLAINT AND DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiff alleges:

Nature of Action

1. This action seeks remedy for Plaintiff Deena Deardurff Schmidt for discrimination and retaliation by Defendants Board of Trustees of the California State University, San Diego State University, and Jeff Schemmel in violation of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. §1681 et seq., which forbids sex discrimination in any education program or activity receiving federal financial assistance, and of California's anti-discrimination in employment laws, Govt. Code §12940 et seq.

Parties

2. Plaintiff Deena Deardurff Schmidt is a resident of the county of San Diego, California. In the 1970s, Schmidt was a world class competitive swimmer who swam on the United States' team.

TOSDAL, SMITH, STEINER
& WAX

San Diego, CA 92101-4508
Telephone: (619) 239-7200
Facsimile: (619) 239-6048

1 During the 1972 Olympic Games, Schmidt won a gold medal while swimming on the United 2 States' team. Between 1994 and August 2007, Schmidt was employed as the head coach of San 3 Diego State University's women's swimming and diving teams.

4 3. Defendant Board of Trustees of the California State University ("Board of Trustees") is the 5 governing body of the California State University, a public university in the State of California.
 6 The Board of Trustees is an employer within the meaning of Govt. Code §12926(d), a university
 7 within the meaning of 20 U.S.C. §1687(2)(A), and a recipient of federal educational funding.

8 4. Defendant San Diego State University ("SDSU") is a campus of the California State
 9 University. SDSU is an employer within the meaning of Govt. Code §12926(d), a university
 10 within the meaning of 20 U.S.C. §1687(2)(A), and a recipient of federal educational funding.
 11 SDSU is located within the judicial district of this Court.

12 5. Defendant Jeff Schemmel is the Director of Intercollegiate Athletics of SDSU. At all times
 13 material, Schemmel was a person acting as an agent and employee of the Board of Trustees and 14 SDSU. At all times material, Schemmel was acting in the course and scope of his agency and 15 employment as Director of Intercollegiate Athletics of SDSU. Plaintiff is informed and believes 16 that Schemmel resides in the county of San Diego.

17 6. Plaintiff sues DOES 1-15 by fictitious names because she is presently unaware of their 18 identity. Each DOE defendant is legally responsible in some manner for the harm caused to 19 Schmidt as alleged in this complaint.

20 7. At all times material, Defendants, and each of them, were the agents and employees of each 21 other and acted in the course and scope of such agency and employment.

22 Venue

23 8. Venue is proper under C.C.P. §395(a) because SDSU is located, Schemmel resides, the 24 contracts of employment between SDSU and Schmidt were entered, and the wrongs alleged in 25 this complaint were committed in the county of San Diego.

26 Factual Allegations

27 9. In 1994 SDSU hired Schmidt on a part time basis as the head coach for the women's 28 swimming, diving, and water polo teams when those teams were re-instated by SDSU at that 1 time.

2 10. In 1995 and in succeeding years until 2007, SDSU retained and reappointed Schmidt as the 3 head coach for the women's swimming and diving teams on a full time, salaried basis. From 4 1994 to about 1998 Schmidt served as head coach of the women's water polo team.

5 11. Between 1994 and 2007, Schmidt was qualified to serve as head coach of the women's 6 swimming, diving, and, when applicable, water polo teams and ably and competently performed
7 her duties in those capacities.

8 12. SDSU's women's swimming and diving teams are in NCAA Division 1, competing at the 9 highest level of intercollegiate athletics. There are approximately 200 NCAA Division one 10 women's swimming teams in the country. SDSU does not and since 1994 has not had a men's 11 swimming or diving team.

12 13. When Schmidt started work as head coach and for the first few years of her employment,
13 SDSU had a swimming pool on the SDSU campus which was compliant with NCAA standards
14 in which the women's swimming team could train and compete. The campus pool was not 15 NCAA compliant for water polo so the water polo team had to train and compete in off campus 16 facilities.

17 14. In the fall of 1996, SDSU closed the campus pool for upgrades. Both the women's 18 swimming and water polo teams were forced to train and compete in off campus facilities not 19 owned or operated by SDSU.

20 15. On or about 1997, Schmidt was advised by then SDSU Athletic Director Rick Bay that he 21 and SDSU intended to build an athletic center on the SDSU campus location where the 22 swimming pool was located. The athletic center was to include a number of facilities, including 23 the offices of the Athletic Director. Schmidt objected to the closure of the pool to the Athletic 24 Director and his assistant because the women's swimming and diving teams would have no place
25 to train or compete. The Athletic Director overrode Schmidt's objections but assured Schmidt 26 that the campus pool would not be removed until a new campus pool was under construction.

27 16. The Board of Trustees and SDSU did not provide funding for a new campus pool. Schmidt
28 sought through her own efforts to obtain funding to construct a new pool so the women's teams

1 could recruit, train, and compete on an equal level. In the course of those efforts during the late
 2 1990s, Schmidt was sexually harassed by a donor who repeatedly physically grabbed her and 3 promised to donate money to construct a new pool if she would have sex with him. Schmidt
 4 reported this conduct at various times to the Athletic Director, the Assistant Athletic Director,
 5 and the head of SDSU's Athletic Department fund raising, but no action was taken to stop the 6 donor's conduct. Bay told Schmidt that this conduct was not uncommon from this donor, that he 7 was a big donor, and she needed to deal with it. Nothing was done by the Board of Trustees or 8 SDSU to stop the donor's actions. Schmidt refused the donor's advances, and no donation for a 9 pool was made by this person.

10 17. To locate funding for a pool, Schmidt spent long hours helping to develop and publicize
 11 more than one Associated Students' referenda to increase student fees to build a new swimming 12 pool. One such initiative failed in 1998 by about 76 votes.

13 18. On or about 1999, SDSU demolished the campus swimming pool despite the absence of 14 funding for a new pool on campus. Schmidt protested to Athletic Director Bay that, among other 15 things, it was illegal to close the pool and leave the women's teams with no facility to train and 16 compete, and the off-campus facility that had been located at which to train was dangerous and 17 inadequate. Bay told Schmidt that he knew how difficult it would be to hold a team together, 18 much less compete, but that Schmidt needed to support the decision to build an athletic center at 19 the location of the existing campus pool. Bay assured Schmidt that if she could hold her team
 20 together, graduate athletes, and keep them out of trouble he would continue to support Schmidt
 21 and had no expectations about what the team could do given the circumstances.

22 19. With much difficulty, Schmidt located off campus facilities at which to train. Between 1999
 23 and 2007, the women's swimming team trained at six different facilities. The primary facility 24 was at a local recreation facility in a high crime area in San Diego. When that facility was 25 unavailable, the women's swimming team trained at various off-campus facilities, such as 26 Southwestern College in Chula Vista, Bud Kern's in Balboa Park, a Tierrasanta recreation
 27 facility, Allied Gardens Community Center, and at other facilities. Available training times were 28 not consistent, and the facilities on occasion were not available for training for extended periods

1 of time, necessitating a search by Schmidt for another facility. Around 2004, the team trained in 2 the morning at the newly opened Kroc Center on University Avenue in San Diego and in the 3 afternoons at another facility. Meets were hosted at the various training facilities.

4 20. The women's diving team also suffered from a lack of facilities and financial and 5 administrative support from the Board of Trustees and SDSU. Because of the lack of funding, the 6 women's diving team had no diving coach for the school years of 1994-1995 through 2002-2003.
 7 During those years, Schmidt consistently advocated to the Athletic Director and others at SDSU
 8 for increased funding to hire a diving coach but did not receive it. While some increased but not 9 adequate funding was given for a diving coach during the school years from 2003-2004 through 10 2006-2007, the diving team, like the swimming team, had no on-campus facility at which to 11 compete or train. The women's diving team was forced to train at various facilities throughout 12 the county of San Diego and at difficult and inconsistent times.

13 21. Each year that the SDSU women's swimming and diving teams did not have an on-campus
 14 facility at which to train and hold meets, it became more difficult for Schmidt and her staff to 15 recruit swimmers and divers to the women's teams.

16 22. On or about 2001, SDSU terminated or did not renew the employment of Rick Bay. Some 17 time thereafter, SDSU hired Gene Bartow as interim Athletic Director. On or about 2003, SDSU
 18 hired Mike Bohn as Athletic Director. Shortly after he was hired, Schmidt met with Bohn and 19 explained the difficulties she had with holding a swimming team together without a facility and 20 asked Bohn to meet with a potential donor to help raise funds for a new pool. Bohn refused to 21 pursue the potential fund raising efforts of the donor for a new pool; he told Schmidt that "if she 22 kept on this she would be walking the plank." Recruiting became increasingly difficult in the 23 absence of proper pool and diving facilities.

24 23. Schmidt worked long hours on another Associated Students referendum to raise student fees
 25 to build a pool facility on campus and to design such a facility. In 2004, the referendum passed,
 26 with the SDSU students voting to increase their student fees to construct an on campus
 27 swimming pool facility.

28 24. Two days before the fall 2004 school term started, Schmidt was diagnosed with breast

1 cancer. During the 2004-2005 school year, Schmidt had five surgeries and underwent
 2 chemotherapy in attempts to arrest the cancer. Although she was ill, lost much weight, and had 3 lost her hair, Schmidt continued to work as best she could with the help of her part-time assistant 4 coaches. Although Schmidt requested help from Athletic Director Bohn, she did not receive any 5 help from him nor did he communicate with her for several months.

6 25. In the summer of 2005, Bohn departed SDSU employment and Schemmel was hired as 7 Athletic Director. While still recovering from chemotherapy and without hair, Schmidt informed
 8 Schemmel of her cancer. Although ill for an extended period of time from the cancer, Schmidt
 9 kept working as head coach of the women's swimming team as best she could. In the summer of 10 2006, Schmidt developed a serious bacterial infection, which was probably caused by her 11 numerous surgeries. In the fall of 2006, Schmidt's doctors inserted a port in her forearm for the 12 intravenous injection of antibiotics for 1 ½ hours per day which she kept in her forearm for 13 several months.

14 26. Over the years of her employment up to summer of 2005 and thereafter until the non-renewal 15 of her contract and termination in 2007, Schmidt, and others in her behalf, advocated to 16 Defendants, and their agents and employees, for gender equity in athletics and against sex 17 discrimination in athletics and her employment, which included but is not limited to the 18 following actions:

19 (a) Schmidt protested against the unequal and inadequate athletic facilities and 20 opportunities for the women's swimming and diving teams;

21 (b) Schmidt protested against the unequal, changing, burdensome and varied practice 22 times for women athletes in the swimming and diving program;

23 (c) Schmidt protested against the unequal pay for her and her part time assistant coaches;

24 (d) Schmidt protested against the absence of full time assistant coaches and a trainer
 25 compared to men's athletic programs;

26 (e) Schmidt protested against unequal financial and administrative support and 27 transportation for women athletes in the women's swimming and diving programs;

28 (f) Schmidt protested Schemmel's failure to grant her a multi-year contract in 2006 (only

1 a one year contract was provided) and his imposition of unrealistic performance objectives for 2 the 2006-2007 school year, although the contracts provided to male coaches were not so limited
 3 and did not include such unrealistic objectives;

4 (g) Schmidt protested against unequal recruitment of women swimmers and divers based 5 on the absence of adequate and equal swimming and diving facilities compared to men's sports.
 6 27. Schmidt's contract for the 2006-2007 school year was to expire by its own terms on May 31,
 7 2007. On or about June 8, 2007, Schmidt was summoned to a meeting with Schemmel on June
 8 11, 2007. At that time, Schmidt was scheduled for surgery for another cancer condition, 9 melanoma, of which Schemmel was advised. Schemmel told Schmidt that he did not believe she 10 could bring the women's swimming team to the "national level" and that he would not reappoint
 11 her for the following school year. Schemmel gave Schmidt an additional two month contract 12 until July 31, 2007, to wind up her affairs at SDSU, after which she was no longer employed by 13 SDSU.

14 28. The new SDSU on-campus pool facility, constructed by the efforts in large part of Schmidt
 15 and from student fees obtained by the student referendum on which Schmidt worked so hard,
 16 opened in March 2007, after the end of the 2006-2007 women's swimming and diving seasons.

17 29. All of the performance reviews in Schmidt's SDSU personnel file have overall ratings from 18 good to excellent.

19 30. Schmidt has never been disciplined by SDSU for any reason.

20 31. On or about mid-August 2007, Schemmel and SDSU announced they had hired a man to 21 coach the women's swimming team. At present, SDSU's women's swimming and diving teams 22 are coached entirely by men.

23 32. Schmidt is presently without work. In order to retain health care coverage, Schmidt was 24 forced by the wrongful acts of Defendants to take early retirement from SDSU at a level of 25 benefits greatly reduced from what would have been her normal retirement benefit.

26 33. On or about September 17, 2007, Schmidt filed complaints of discrimination against 27 Defendants with the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing, which issued right
 28 to sue letters on or about September 21, 2007.

34. Schmidt has exhausted her administrative remedies. No further exhaustion of administrative remedies is required. In the alternative, further exhaustion of administrative remedies would be futile.

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY, JEFF SCHEMME, DOES 1-15

YOU ARE BEING SUED BY PLAINTIFF:

(LO ESTÁ DEMANDANDO EL DEMANDANTE):

DEENA DEARDURFF SCHMIDT

FOR COURT USE ONLY
(SOLO PARA USO DE LA CORTE)

JAN 7 11:33 AM

SAN DIEGO COUNTY, CA

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol/), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp/espanol/) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados lo
